Dear Parents/Guardians:

The No Child Left Behind (NCLB) federal law requires that individuals hired to teach core academic subjects meet a specific federal definition of "Highly Qualified."

The Pegasus School had 95% of its teachers assigned to teach core subject classes meet the definition of "Highly Qualified" as of September 16, 2014. As of November 20, 2014, 98% of Pegasus Teachers assigned to teach core subject classes met the definition of "Highly Qualified."

Sincerely,
Christina Silva
Dean of Instruction
